On motion, the accounts were allowed and warrants ordered to be issued in payment thereof.

Alderman Watkins, Chairman of the Committee on Claims, to whom was referred the claims of A. A. Green and E. Bloom, for exemption from taxes due for 1885, reported the same to the Board; and on motion, it was ordered that the claim of A. A. Green be referred to the City Collector for settlement, and that the claim of E. Bloom be allowed, so as to grant him exemption from tax 1885, on his manufactory, machinery and real estate, situated on the east side of Crescent street.

Alderman Braun presented an ordinance in relation to the storing of oils within certain limits, and the same was, on motion, referred to the Committee on Safety.

The following ordinance in relation to sidewalks was submitted:

Be it Ordained by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Jackson, That the sidewalk on south side Capitol street, West Jackson, the property of Hansberry estate, being out of repair, and not being in the safe and suitable condition required by section 29, Revised Ordinances of the City of Jackson, the said owner thereof is hereby required to construct or repair said sidewalk in the manner and with materials as follows: Good, hard, well burned paving brick, laid 8 feet in width, and shall incline upward from the outer edge towards the building or boundary of the lot, at the rate of one inch in three feet; and on the failure of said owner to comply with the provisions of this Ordinance, within 10 days after the service of notice hereof by the City Marshal, the said sidewalk shall be repaired as above described, by the Street Committee, at the expense of the city, and the cost thereof and 10 per cent. damages shall be collected of the owner of such property in the manner provided by section 30 of Revised Ordinances.

The ordinance was adopted.

On motion of Alderman Taylor, the Board adjourned.

JOHN MCGILL, Mayor.
M. M. McLEOD, City Clerk.

CALLIED MEETING.

JACKSON, MISS., February 22, 1886.

At a called meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Jackson, held Monday, February 22, 1886: Present, Hon. John McGill, Mayor; Aldermen Braun, Hardy, Jones, Taylor, and Watkins. Absent: Alderman Lemly.

His Honor, the Mayor, called the meeting to the Board, that the meeting was called for the purpose of making final settlement with the Smith Bridge Company, of Toledo, Ohio, for the building of the iron bridge across Town Creek, on Capitol street.

On motion of Alderman Hardy, it was ordered, that the Clerk issue a warrant for $1,855, payable January 1, 1887, to the Smith Bridge Company, in full payment of amount due them for iron bridge on Capitol street.

The following Ordinance, in relation to assessments, was submitted to the Board by the Mayor:

Be it Ordained by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Jackson, That Section 4, of Article I, Chapter I, Revised Ordinances, adopted April 27, 1882, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 4. Between the said 1st day of February, and the 1st Monday in June in each year, said Assessor shall assess all the property, real and personal, subject to taxation in said City, and he shall set down on said assessment rolls of personal property in the appropriate columns, the names, in alphabetical order, of the taxable inhabitants of the City, each item of taxable personal property, value of same, and amount of tax; and he shall set down on the rolls of real estate, the names of owners in alphabetical order, according to the plan of the City, with names of owners in the first column, and to that roll he shall make an alphabetical index of the names assessed, referring to the pages of that roll showing their assessments of each person."

The Ordinance was adopted.

The application of Dr. P. T. Bailey, for permission to erect a frame building within the fire limits of the City, was, on motion, refused.

On motion, the Finance Committee were instructed to ascertain whether the conditions of the grant by the City of the south half of Court Square 1, South Jackson, to the Vicksburg and Meridian Railroad Company are being complied with, and report to the Board at next meeting.

On motion of Alderman Taylor, the Board adjourned.

JOHN MCGILL, Mayor.
M. M. McLEOD, City Clerk.

CALLIED MEETING.

JACKSON, MISS., March 3, 1886.

At a called meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Jackson, held Wednesday, March 3, 1886: Present, Hon. John McGill, Mayor; Aldermen Hardy, Jones, Taylor and Watkins; Absent, Aldermen Braun and Lemly.

His Honor, the Mayor, informed the Board that this meeting had been called for the purpose of taking action on the petition of Phillip Christman, to retail vinous and spirituous liquors, the same having been presented and filed February 2, 1886.

The Committee on Retail Liquor Petitions made the following report:

Your Committee, to whom was referred the petition of Phillip Christman, to retail vinous and spirituous liquors, beg leave to report, that they have carefully examined said petition, deducted the names of those who are not legal voters residing in the city, and after correctly counting the names remaining, find that his petition has the number of signatures of legal voters required by law, that it has been filed one month, and published three weeks in the newspapers, and we recommend that license be granted for the period of one year, upon the filing of the statutory bond by said petitioner.

On motion, the report was received and the license granted upon payment of $100 to the City and $300 to the State, and the filing of the bond required by law.

The bonds of Phillip Christman, and of R. P. Howell, dealers in vinous and spirituous liquors, were submitted to the Board, and after examination they were approved.

On motion of Alderman Taylor, the Board adjourned.

JOHN MCGILL, Mayor.
M. M. McLEOD, City Clerk.
